

orlando filmbook

an award-winning publication of the metro Orlando film & entertainment commission

>> The Metro Orlando Film & Entertainment Commission, a division of the Metro Orlando Economic Development Commission, markets Central Florida as an ideal region for film, television, commercial and interactive entertainment production. Orlando has been named one of the "Top 10 Cities for Moviemakers" by Moviemaker magazine. In explaining its ranking, the magazine noted that "The sheer volume of what Orlando has to offer moviemakers in terms of production alone rivals New York and Los Angeles."

The Orlando Filmbook, the official publication of the Metro Orlando Film & Entertainment Commission, provides producers and directors with the comprehensive, detailed information they need to do business in Central Florida. With a qualified distribution of 7,500 copies, the Orlando Filmbook is THE guide for the film industry in our region. It includes information on permitting, production companies, stages and backlots, crews and technicians, equipment, production support services, post production, and much, much more.

>> don't miss out

Promote your business to Central Florida's lucrative film and television production market by placing a display ad in the Orlando Filmbook! Each full-page advertiser, including covers, will receive an enhanced listing in the publication. ## advertising specs Four-color ads will be placed on Tabs or Cover positions only. Positions are subject to availability.

document construction

- Document size should be the same size as the ad. If an ad does not have an edge, a border may be applied at the publisher's discretion.
- All ads should be constructed using CMYK graphics and colors – no PMS colors or RGB images.
- Resolution of graphics should be 300 dpi and placed at 100%.

digital formats

- PDF/X-1a is the preferred format for electronic file submission. All high-resolution images must be included and fonts embedded when the PDF/X-1a file is saved.
- TIFF and JPEG files are also acceptable formats. Resolution should be 300 dpi and color mode should be CMYK. TIFF files should be flattened and fonts embedded.

ad submission

- The preferred method of ad submission is on a CD-ROM, accompanied by a proof that represents the final digital ad file at 100%, for verification that ad elements (artwork, fonts, etc.) output correctly. Verification of color in an ad requires a SWOP-certified proof with color bars, which has been calibrated to printing industry standards. A proof printed on a laser, inkjet, or other printer that is not calibrated to printing industry standards does not provide an accurate representation of final color.
- Electronic submission of ad files is now also accepted, but it is highly recommended that a hard-copy proof be provided separately for use in verifying that the file has transmitted correctly.
- In the absence of a hard-copy proof supplied by the advertiser/agent, and of a SWOP-certified proof for-color ads, the Orlando/Orange County Convention & Visitors Bureau, Inc.® and the Metro Orlando Film & Entertainment Commission will not in any way be held responsible for errors, omissions or color reproduction of the ad, and will not refund contracted advertising rates or other amounts should unnoted errors be subsequently printed.
- Ads should be labeled with the publication name and issue date, along with the advertiser contact and phone number. We do NOT return CDs or other advertising materials unless requested. Materials that are not returned will be discarded after one year from insertion.
- In order to ensure accurate distribution of your materials, please include a copy of the insertion order or a packing slip that clearly indicates the publication name and issue date and the agency/vendor contact name and phone number.
